Department of Commerce Announces Release of 2002 Edition of Schedule B: Statistical Classification of Domestic and Foreign Commodities Exported from the U.S.

Washington, D.C. - The 2002 edition of Schedule B: Statistical Classification of Domestic and Foreign Commodities Exported from the United States is now available for sale from the Superintendent of Documents.

Schedule B contains approximately 9,000 10-digit commodity classifications based on the organization framework of the Tariff Schedules of the United States. Schedule B is used by shippers in reporting export shipments from the United States and for use in compiling official statistics on exports of merchandise from the United States.

NEW in this edition! Many changes essential to you as planning tools in shipping and handling your merchandise, including:

- Approximately 1000 new 10-digit commodity classification numbers that become effective January 1, 2002.
- Some chapters and parts of chapters have been restructured to better represent industry practices.
- An improved and updated 6-digit alphabetic index, reflecting the 2002 revisions made to the International Harmonized System. This index will better enable exporters to locate the correct commodity classification numbers needed for their export shipment documentation.
- Section notes, chapter notes and definitions have been updated for conformity to the international system, and to help users better understand the new commodity classifications.
- A table for exporters to easily identify the new 10-digit classification numbers.
- Updated Schedule C (Classification of Country and Territory Designations for U.S. Foreign Trade Statistics) and Schedule D (Classification of U.S. Customs Districts and Ports for U.S. Foreign Trade Statistics).

Orders for Schedule B: Statistical Classification of Domestic and Foreign Commodities Exported from the United States should reference List ID: SCHB and include payment of $135. Annual subscription service provides a basic manual and supplements for an indeterminate period. For your convenience, Schedule B comes in loose-leaf form, punched for 3-ring binder.
